CSCSPA Pursues Board's Recognition

A request for "official recognition" of the California State College Student Presidents' Assn. by the Chancellor and Board of Trustees of the California State Colleges was "favorably endorsed" by the 16-member group at a meeting held over the weekend at Long Beach State College.

According to ASB Pres. Bill Hauck, who also presides over the CSCSPA, the initiated action will have "a tremendous impact" on future student-board of trustees relationships. The proposal asks the Board of Trustees and Chancellor to accept and approve the CSCSPA Constitution and By-Laws, accept and consider CSCSPA resolutions and proposals, inform CSCSPA of Board of Trustees proposals, and grant CSCSPA the privilege of communicating with the Chancellor and Board of Trustees to offer suggestions and comments on proposals during their formation stages.

EARLY START
In the planning stage since last fall, the bill was drafted by seven schools at San Francisco State College Jan. 25 and was submitted to the whole CSCSPA membership at Long Beach. After the proposal was tentatively approved, ASB presidents were asked to submit it to their respective student legislatures. Final consideration and adoption is scheduled for the May 11 and 12 meeting of CSCSPA at Chico State College.

PRESENTATION
The request will be presented

KSJS Presents 4-Hour Program

KSJS, San Jose State College's new FM station, operates on the air at 90.7 megacycles from 4:26 in the afternoon until 8:34 in the evening Monday through Friday.

This four-hour program includes news reports, music and academic discussions.

Some of the discussions include "Medical Milestones" at 7:25 p.m. and "Where Minds Meet" at 7:30. Also, a Washington report will be presented at 8:15 p.m.

RUSSIANS LEAVING IRAQ

BAGHDAD, Iraq (UPI)—Confusion yesterday surrounded the whereabouts of Soviet bloc military men and technicians sent to Iraq to help the regime of executed Abdel Karim Kassim.

Sources close to the Soviet embassy here said the pullout of approximately 1,500 Russian military and civilian personnel has already started. They said the first group left Sunday morning for Moscow.

MYSTERY ILLNESS STRIKES BRITAIN

LONDON (UPI)—A mystery illness now sweeping Britain has "completely stumped" the country's top scientists and bacteriologists. Public Health Laboratory Service Director Sir Graham Wilson said yesterday.

Wilson announced a special 10-man research team has been set up to battle the "bug." So far "we are completely stumped," he said. Wilson added that the illness was very widespread in Britain and was causing "great inconvenience," particularly where workers were being kept away from their jobs up to five days.

CENSORSHIP LAW RULED UNCONSTITUTIONAL

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Supreme Court ruled unconstitutional yesterday several book censoring activities practiced in Rhode Island.

The 8 to 2 ruling upheld a protest by four publishers of paperback books who challenged the actions of the Rhode Island Commission to Encourage Morality in Youth.

The commission was established by the General Assembly in 1956 to educate the public concerning obscene books, pictures and other material. Some 108 books were labeled unfit between 1957 and 1960.

to the Board of Trustees in June for its approval.

Dr. Glenn S. Dumke, Chancellor of California State Colleges, was present at the Long Beach meeting and reacted very favorably to the proposal, according to Hauck. "In fact, he indicated that he would present the request to the Board of Trustees after its final adoption by CSCSPA," said Hauck.

Accompanying Hauck on the 2-day conference were Steve Larson, ASB vice president and chairman of Student Council, and Jay Thorwaldson, ASB information officer.

Spartan Chi Plans Chinese New Year Party Saturday

The Chinese "Year of the Hare" will be welcomed a bit belatedly, but nonetheless enthusiastically to SJS Saturday.

Sponsored by Spartan Chi, Chinese student organization, the celebration will begin with a Chinese dinner at 7 p.m. in the Women's Gym.

The traditional colorful lion dance will follow the dinner. In Chinese legend the lion is a beast which dispels gloom, chases away evil spirits and radiates the joy of the Chinese New Year.

SJS students will model formal, casual, lounging and Chinese dresses from Li Li's of San Francisco as the third part of the program.

Children between 10 and 12 years of age, members of the Chung Liu Drama Society of San Francisco, will perform Oriental folk dances following the fashion show.

The celebration will close with an Occidental touch—a dance lasting from 9 until midnight. Music will be provided by the "Sentimentals."

Admission to the festivities is $1 per person or $1.50 per couple.

STUDENT PRESIDENTS MEET—Bill Hauck, San Jose State ASB president, leads the discussion at the weekend's meeting of the California State College Student Presidents' Association (CSCSPA). Hauck, also president of the organization, is surrounded by (l. to r.) Bob Axel, San Fernando Valley State College ASB president; Garry Little, Long Beach State College ASB president; and Bill Helf, ASB vice president of San Fernando Valley State.

AFROTC Hikers Discover 41 Miles Is a Long Walk

Seven AFROTC volunteers know from personal experience that 41 miles is a long way to hike.

Friday night 18 AFROTC men left the campus for a 50-mile hike in the direction of Livermore. Seven of the group made it to Livermore, but no one went 50 miles.

Murray Jay, leader of the group, said that one of their objectives was accomplished when they made it to Livermore.

Day said that none of the seven tried to go 50 miles because it would have been "too demoralizing" to go out of Livermore and come back in to make 50 miles.

The seven who went 41 miles were Stephen Shervais, Pak K. Leong, Eugene Keller, John Shonanski, Steve Savage, Dean Jacobson, James Chidester, and Day.

Chidester was the first to make it to Livermore. He did it in 12 hours and 50 minutes. Day led the last group in 55 minutes later.

Keane Show Art, Talk with Faculty, Students at 3:30

Today at 3:30 in Concert Hall students and faculty may gather to talk with and hear Margaret and Walter Keane.

The husband and wife team are noted San Francisco artists and their appearance is being sponsored by the Associated Women Students.

The Keanes will bring many of their famous paintings with them to display and use as illustrations for their lecture.

Margaret Keane was born in Nashville, Tenn. She tries to maintain a "positive aspect of art, I want my brush to be a candle in the darkness."

Walter Keane, born in Lincoln, Neb., has his art weighted to the side of realism. "My interest is humanity — which is a child. No child looks like mine except in the mind's eye."

Pictures of the ugliest men at SJS can be seen Thursday and Friday in front of the bookstore and cafeteria.

Living quarters are supplying the pictures for the contest, which is sponsored by the Junior Class.

The living center which sponsors the winning candidate will be awarded a Magnavox AM/FM stereo radio-phonograph.

Originality, humor, and just plain ugliness will be the basis for judging. Voting will be done by students who place coins in jars located under the candidates' pictures.

Money earned by the junior class in the venture will aid in financing the Senior-Junior Ball later this spring.

ON THE DOTTED LINE—SJS coed Karen Hansen signs up for Spartacamp at one of the three campus locations. Signups continue through Friday at booths located in front of the bookstore, the library, and cafeteria. Spartacamp, to be held again this year at Asilomar, is scheduled for March 16-17. Camp director John Olsen reports that any student may attend the camp but choice is made on a first-come, first-serve basis. A $12 fee covering lodging, food, and transportation must be paid when a student signs up.

YR Rightists Take Control Of Assembly

Ultra-conservatives swept a full slate of officers into control of the California Young Republican Assembly Sunday at its convention in Fresno.

In the presidential contest, Robert Gaston, 32, an attorney from La Canada, received 189 votes while Kenneth Davis ran a close second with 170.

Although Gaston does not admit membership in the John Birch Society, he was endorsed by John Roussetot, Western States John Birch Society director.

Davis, a Pasadena stockbroker, was regarded by the delegates as a moderate or liberal candidate although he is a Goldwater conservative.

There had been a third candidate in the race, Ronald Garver, a Los Angeles Bircher, but he withdrew before the election in favor of Gaston.

RIGHT TAKES CONTROL

This election marked the first successful effort of the far-rightist element to take control of a major statewide arm of the California Republican Assembly (CRA).

The strength of the state arch conservative movement will be tested next week when the CRA elects new officers at Disneyland.

During the convention a resolution was passed calling for "a conservative Republican to offer himself at an early date." This was interpreted as an open invitation to Goldwater to run in 1964.

Resolutions were also passed opposing federal aid to education and restoration of crossfiling.

SAN JOSE VOTE

The San Jose delegation's voting was parallel to the general sentiment of the state. Eight of the 12-member delegation voted for Gaston.

They were Jerry Ducote, president of the Santa Clara County YR's, Tom Nichols, William Jacobson, Pete Caldwell, Dennis Alexander, Paul Gordon, Bob Causey, and Ron Birchard, president of SJS Young Republicans Club.

Those voting for Davis were Dave Curphey, Don Greig, John Foley, and Hugh March.

Also attending from San Jose State were Jim Avery, Bill Pollack, Ken Goudey, Sue Willard, and Marvin Wahlstrand.

Reactions to the conservative sweep were varied.

State Republican Chairman Caspar Weinberger was adamant against the close Birch association with GOP officers. But Gaston said he would work with him.

Former YR presidents expressed disappointment in Gaston's victory.

Vote Announcement Results in Walkout

By DIANE JUDGE

The California Young Republican College Federation's delegation stalked out of the Fresno YR convention after election results had been announced.

Harold Phillips, 22, president of the collegiate YR's, said the executive board had unanimously agreed to sever relations with the main body because "The extreme conservative position is not the position of college Young Republicans."

There were radically different reactions to the walkout.

Delegations from SJS, San Jose City College, Foothill Junior College, and Santa Clara University were determined to remain at the convention.

The San Francisco delegation was in agreement with Phillips' move.

Ron Birchard, SJS Young Republican president, disapproves of the federation's action.

"No college unit agrees with Phillips' position. It is a direct contradiction to the idea of working together. Just because his delegate didn't win, he walked out. It showed a lack of good faith on his part," Birchard said.

Birchard added that SJS Young Republicans will co-operate in every way with the California YR's.

The YR College Federation holds its own convention in April. Sunday, Phillips said the executive committee will sponsor amendments to sever the Federation from the main YR body.

But Ron Birchard said that after the election Sunday, the YR state board accepted the resignation of Harold Phillips as president of the organization. Therefore, according to Birchard, Phillips will not be president in April and cannot introduce resolutions.

Protests against the right-wing control had been heard before the convention.

The West Valley Republican League, successor to the Saratoga Young Republican Club, recently turned in its charter in protest to Birch leadership in Santa Clara County.

After Jerry Ducote, an ultra-conservative, was elected president of Santa Clara County YR's in January, protests were heard from YR's and Republicans throughout the county.

The South Santa Clara County YR's, in protest against the John Birchers, will turn in its charter and become an independent organization, according to Don Greig, delegate to the convention.

New Instructor To Teach Econ

Mrs. Shirley E. Kress, SJS graduate, has been hired for a part time appointment to teach one section of Economics 1A in the evenings for the spring semester at SJS, according to Dr. Andrew P. Lassen, head of the Economics and Geography Department.

"She is a very fine student who is enjoying her new experience," said Dr. Lassen. "We are happy to have her."

After receiving her B.A. from San Francisco State, Mrs. Kress continued at SJS and has completed all course requirements for an M.A. in economics. San Jose State is awaiting authorization from the State Board of Trustees to give the master of arts in economics.

Mrs. Kress hopes to be able "to continue teaching at SJS." She plans to get her doctorate at the University of California sometime in the near future.

Merit Award Given Prof Milichevich For Air Workshop

Nick M. Milichevich, associate professor of aeronautics at San Jose State College, received a certificate of merit from the California Aeronautics Commission yesterday at ceremonies held at the Department of Education in Sacramento. The award was given because of the professor's "endeavors on behalf of aviation education in the state, especially in relation to his conduct of the San Jose State College Aviation Education Workshop for teachers."

The workshop was held last summer at the branch SJS summer session at Hartnell at Salinas.

Present at yesterday's ceremonies were President John T. Wahlquist, President of the College, John W. Gilbaugh and Dean Norman Gunderson of the Engineering Division. With Milichevich, they flew to Sacramento in a twin-engine Beechcraft lent for the trip by the Lockheed Corporation.

For much the same reasons that Nikita Khrushchev described West Berlin as a bone in his throat, President Kennedy can apply the same description to Cuba.

Viewed in this light, Cuba vs. Berlin, Soviet strategy becomes clearer and Cuba takes a natural place on the cold war chess board.

In this light the actual number of Soviet troops in Cuba takes on lesser significance, whether it be 5,000 or 20,000. It is the Soviet "presence" that counts.

A handful of 10,000 or so Allied troops in West Berlin could not hope to stem the Soviet tide were it to be unleashed. One reason that it is not unleashed lies not in the number but in the Allied "presence" which would guarantee a world war in case of Soviet attack.

SOVIET RE-ASSESSMENT

When the world receded from the brink of nuclear war last October with Khrushchev's promise to remove his offensive rockets, it naturally was assumed that he now would look elsewhere for a means to re-establish damaged prestige and to recapture the initiative.

One of these assumptions took in the possibility of new Soviet pressure on Berlin.

Instead, he has reversed his field, facing the United States in Cuba with exactly the same risks he would face in an attack upon Berlin.

There are other striking similarities.

Just as West Berlin is a foothold within Communist territory, so Cuba now is a foothold in a traditionally U.S. sphere of influence.

COPYCAT METHOD

Just as the Western powers have been willing to pour millions of dollars into West Berlin to help maintain it as a free world symbol, so Khrushchev apparently is willing to pour millions into Cuba to maintain it as a beacon for Communist subversion throughout Latin America.

Khrushchev could take other pages from the book of Allied experience in Berlin.

The allied airlift broke the back of the 1948 Communist blockade of Berlin and demonstrated the futility of trying to starve out even an isolated city without measures sterner than the Communists were willing to undertake.

A Communist seahift can continue to supply Cuba, although at enormous expense, unless the United States is willing to take similar stern measures.

There has been so much criticism of the high budgetary spending by the national government recently, but that is a drop in the bucket compared to 1985. Let's find out what really happened to foreign aid.

"When questioned on the 'Meet the Press' TV program last night, Secretary of the Treasury, Bobby Kennedy said he did not think the President's $900 billion budget was too large. But he did say that the figure of $350 billion for foreign aid could be trimmed a trifle. 'After all,' he said, 'there is such a thing as overdoing it.'"

The Column

By GEORGE MARTIN

Hey Al, Pass the Camels

I remember it clearly. I walked into the room, a young, inexperienced Spartan Daily political reporter, and saw him sitting there, exuding strength and confidence. The place was Centennial Hall, and the occasion was a meeting of the SJS Democratic Club. He was sitting at the front of the room, and after a short pause, he began telling the assembled group what a good job he would do as our assemblyman.

"It's a question of 'no' or 'go,'" he said, indicating that a vote for Honest Al Alquist would be a vote for clean, progressive government. "Ah'm proud," he said, "to be campaigning on the record of Governor Pat Brown"—a statement that should have warned me right then. I was young, though, and in my eyes the fire of idealism had not yet lost its glow, so I slid up to the edge of my seat and listened raptly.

"Here," I thought, "is a fearless fighter, wise and truthful, yet skilled in the rough and tumble tactics of professional political in-fighting."

"Here," I thought, "is a man for whom we should cast our ballots—secure in the knowledge that our precious right to vote had been used with wisdom, if not genius."

That day, we all smiled, glowing inside with the knowledge that we had done well; Al was in Saeto, watching out for us.

Ah, how fast comes the disillusionment. We have, it seems, sown the wind and reaped the whirlwind. Honest Al has finked out.

Specifically, the Big Fella introduced a bill in the assembly recently that would ban cigarette and tobacco ads in state college papers, and give the University of California Board of Regents power to extend the ban to papers under their control.

Alquist apparently doesn't realize the great importance of tobacco ads. Without them, we might forget the names of our favorite brands; we'd lose out on all the contests; we couldn't read Max Shulman; and mainly, Spartan Daily couldn't rake in all the coins.

Al, buddy, how COULD you?

Indoor Track Trial Establishes Murphy

Danny Murphy is a name to be entered in the growing list of outstanding runners that have almost overnight sprouted in the United States since Jim Beatty started revising the record book last year. The stocky San Jose State sophomore pushed former Spartan Charlie Clark to a new American citizen's two-mile record in the main attraction offered by Friday's Golden Gate Invitational in San Francisco.

Clark, now running for the Southern California Striders, breasted the tape in 8:45.8 after successfully erasing a 20-yard lead held by Murphy during the middle laps of the two-man race.

But, for Murphy, who was timed in 8:47.3, the race was an astronomical lift for a youngster of just 19 years. Distance runners usually reach peak running form in their middle and late twenties.

The SJS distance star lowered his previous indoor best by 11.2 seconds and just missed Clark's school record of 8:45 set outdoors.

Murphy must now be rated along with Bruce Kidd and Tom O'Hara as the brightest of the young distance talent.

Veteran Jeff Fishback won the one-mile steeplechase after a down-to-the-wire battle with Tom Oakley of the Santa Clara Youth Village. Fishback finished in 4:33.0, with Oakley two-tenths second slower. Ron Davis, formerly of SJS, was third in 4:35.5.

Freshmen sprint prospects, Ed Moody earned a close second, third and fourth, and Wayne Herman merited a pair of thirds against a good field.

THE WINNER!—Spartan distance star Jeff Fishback clears a high hurdle en route to winning the one-mile steeplechase event in the Golden Gate Invitational Friday night in the Cow Palace.

Students Test Varsity In Interclass Festival

Students who feel that they can out-run and out-throw any San Jose State varsity track man will be given their only opportunity to do so today in the interclass track meet at Spartan Stadium.

The first event gets under way at 3:15 p.m.

Spartan coach Bud Winter feels a good many of the meet records will give way to the pounding feet and sturdy biceps of a solid crop of 1963 varsity, freshmen and graduate cinder-men.

Scheduled in conjunction with the meet will be the annual Greek Relays, pitting the fleet of the fraternity set against one another. The interclass track test has proven to be a welcome introduction to San Jose State track personnel and their hopes for the upcoming season.

Many SJS greats like Ray Norton, Herm Wyatt, Lang Stanley and Dennis Johnson have left their marks in the interclass record log.

Gator Gymnasts Win Dual Meet

A near-comeback victory was halted when San Francisco State scored heavily in the final event to turn back San Jose State 66-62 in their dual gymnastics meet Friday at San Francisco.

With the meet victory depending on the tumbling event, and the Spartans in command 57-55, the Golden Gators garnered first, third and fourth places to take the meet.

Rich Chew totaled 19 points for the winless Spartans (0-5). SFS all-around ace George Wilcox individually tallied 28 points.

Clair Jennett's acrobats lagged through the early stages of the meet, but resurged as Mike Lucero won the side horse and Chew the long horse.

Charles Allen, on the trampoline, was the only other San Jose performer to take first place.

Intramural Stars To Face Stanford

Intramural managers and captains voted to play an extramural basketball game with Stanford, according to Dan Unruh, intramural director.

The game will be played at Stanford, Unruh said, with March 9 at 1:30 p.m. having been set as a tentative date and time.

An all-star team, composed of six fraternity and six independent players, will represent San Jose State in the game, Unruh said. The team will be chosen by Unruh, Bill Tognolini, student intramural assistant, and the three top basketball officials, as selected by the team captains.

Norton holds three sprint records and is tied with Johnson for the 100-yard standard at 9.7.

The heaviest assault on old standards will come from distance stars Danny Murphy and Jeff Fishback, both top attractions at Friday's Golden Gate Invitational indoor track spectacle.

Murphy, just 19 years old, combined with ex-Spartan Charlie Clark Friday to run away with the two-mile run and also the applause from the appreciative 13,000-plus that nearly filled the Cow Palace.

Clark established a new American citizen's mark of 8:45.8. Murphy was a close second at 8:47.3.

Fishback charged across the finish line first in the one-mile steeplechase. His time was 4:33.0.

Eddie Sims Injured at Loyola; Doubtful Starter Against USF

Bemoaning Eddie Sims' injury and the mediocre performances of his ball club last weekend, Spartan basketball coach Stu Inman emphasized that SJS would have to improve all facets of its game to upset league-leading University of San Francisco Friday night in Civic Auditorium.

Sims, who was on the receiving end of a Detroit Flanagan elbow in the Loyola game Friday, sat out the Pepperdine game Saturday and is a doubtful starter for the USF fray.

While San Jose was experiencing a double trimming in the Southland, USF claimed sole possession of the WCAC leadership by shading previously unbeaten St. Mary's 78-72.

Guard Joe Brovelli was the Don trigger man with 28 points, including 16 of 19 from the charity stripe. Sophomore center Ollie Johnson led USF in rebounding and flipped in 19 points.

Although St. Mary's was ousted from first place, master pointmaker Steve Gray kept a strong grip on his WCAC scoring leadership with an 18-point output. Gray is now averaging 24.2, compared to runner-up Harry Dinnel's 18.0.

San Jose forward Denny Bates moved into the top ten for the first time by hitting 13 against Loyola and 18 against Pepperdine. He is now eighth in the standings with a 12.9 average.

Another conference crucial will take place tonight when St. Mary's entertains University of Santa Clara in Oakland Auditorium at 8:15.

Coach Bob Garibaldi's Broncos will attempt to avenge last Tuesday's 72-65 loss to the Gaels. Both quintets must win to remain a single game behind the pacesetter Dons.

In other games tonight, USF will jaunt to Stockton to test last-place University of Pacific, while Loyola and Pepperdine clash in the Los Angeles Sports Arena.

Mermen Defeat Beavers For 29th Straight Win

San Jose State's swimming team, undefeated in nearly three years, picked up an easy victory over Oregon State Saturday, following Friday night's squeaker with Oregon.

The Spartans won the meet 60-34, hiking their consecutive victory total to 29. The event was held at the Spartan pool.

San Jose swept first and second places in four of the nine individual events. In addition, the Spartans took first places in two events and seconds in three.

The teams split the relays, San Jose winning the 400-yard medley in 3:58.9, and Oregon State win-ing the 400-yard freestyle in 3:32.6. The Spartan freestyle relay team was completely different from the one that set a new school record against Oregon Friday night.

Spartan winners included Don Black, 200-yard freestyle, 1:57.4, and 500-yard freestyle, 5:30.8; Nick Schoenmann, 50-yard freestyle, 22.8; Herm Radloff, 200-yard individual medley, 2:17.2; Bill Hird, 200-yard butterfly, 2:12.6 and Pete Sagues, 100-yard freestyle, 51.2.

Tomorrow, San Jose plays host to the University of California at 3:30 p.m. in the Spartan pool.

Women's Honor Club Gets Local Chapter

An SJS chapter of Alpha Lambda Delta, national honor society for college women was instituted last week.

Thirty women who had achieved the required 3.5 GPA were initiated at the evening ceremony.

Installed as officers were Christine Buckner, president; Diane Nisewanger, vice president; Connie Trimble, secretary; Martha Muttikowski, treasurer; Carolyn Brecunier, historian; Joan Woodbury, editor; Karen Riffel, junior adviser; and Sharon Reimel, senior adviser.

INSTALLING OFFICER

Installing officer was Miss Esther Brown, dean of women at Montana State College and district adviser of the Western Division of Alpha Lambda Delta.

Assisting were Janet Douglas, associate dean of students, and Miss Jo Ann Martin, assistant professor of English at SJS and faculty adviser.

Miss Maria Leonard, founder of the first chapter of Alpha Lambda Delta in 1924 at the University of Illinois, was the guest of honor.

CHARTER MEMBERS

Charter members are Viviane Abot, Mary Blomquist, Carolyn Brecunier, Christine Buckner, Harriette Fisher, Carole Fuller, Sue Gautreaux, Cynthia Herman, Janet Hjelmeland, Maydene Jenks, Sue Johnston, Diane Judge.

Anna Mason, Judith McConnell, Patricia McCracken, Kathleen Meeker, Wendy Morek, Martha Muttikowski, Linda Nelson, Diane Nisewanger, Darylin Pritchett, Judith Remley, Karen Riffel, Sherry Saunders, Nancy Smith, Connie Trimble, Martha Weers, Joan Woodbury, Carole Wullenjohn, and Sharon Reimel.

Since its founding, the society has organized 107 chapters at colleges and universities throughout the United States. Other chapters in California are located at UCLA, USC, University of the Pacific, and San Diego State.

Freshman girls with a 3.5 GPA will be notified by the group and an initiation will be held this semester.

WHERE'S HOME?

Where do SJS students come from? Latest statistics available show Santa Clara County providing 44 per cent, Alameda 11, San Mateo 8, Los Angeles 7, and the remainder of the state 25. Four per cent come from other states, and 1 per cent from foreign countries.

Aerospace Lecture By Pioneer Expert

A series of displays illustrating the latest developments in aerospace technology and a lecture by Willey Ley, pioneer in rocketry, missile and space travel, heads a technical display program slated for April 22 at the Cabana Motor Hotel in Palo Alto.

The program is sponsored by the Society of Aerospace Material and Process Engineers (SAMPE) in conjunction with the aerospace industry.

Spartan Shields Elect New Officers

Newly-elected officers of San Jose State's Spartan Shields, a sophomore men's honorary service society, are Don Carroll, president; Gary Brasfield, vice president; John Hammond, secretary; and Mike Cook, treasurer.

Recent activities of the group have included assistance in this semester's Orientation program. The society aided in setting up booths for the campus organizations' open house, serving Orientation Dinner, running the soft drink concession at the Orientation Dance, and acting as links between the student body and the faculty during Orientation week.

The Shields also gave assistance to the State Board of Trustees during their meeting on the SJS campus Feb. 7 and 8.

New members of the Spartan Shields include Rick Carrithers, Larry Ferrario, Jim Douglas, Steve Snyder, Al Shores, Jules Loventhal, Kaye Tregillis, Ed Butten, and Cliff Gutterman.

Eighteen physicians, 10 of them full-time, staff the Student Health Service.
